

Will You STAND UP for Your Community This Holiday Season?

Our communities pay the price when Walmart understaffs their stores and underpays employees. As many as 825,000 Walmart workers are earning less than $25,000 a year because of Walmart's low wages and inadequate hours. Many of these workers have no choice but to rely on public assistance to make ends meet. Workers have been speaking out, calling on Walmart to publicly commit to more hours, better pay and respect at work. Instead of making changes, Walmart has fired or threatened those who have the courage to call on the company to change.

TELL YOUR LOCAL WALMART STORE MANAGER THAT YOU STAND WITH WALMART WORKERS!

"I am a father of three. With the insufficient hours and the low pay that I get at Walmart, I will make around $12,000 this year. I don't need cable or to own a house, but I shouldn't have to rely on food stamps or donate plasma just to feed my kids when I have a job."
