

Dear Hardworking Congressional Staff:

It's lunchtime! Enjoy this complementary pizza. Yum!

Sorry we can't say where the meat came from. Or what drugs were used on the livestock. Or what herbicides or pesticides are included. Or what untested GMOs. It's all legal so it must be safe to eat, right? Just so long as all the corporations involved make a profit for their shareholders. Which, of course, a vote for the TPP will ensure.

Bon appetit!

PS: take home a slice or two for your kids' lunch tomorrow.
