

WHAT IS THE UNDOCU/DACA FRIENDLY COLLEGE LIST?

This Undocu/DACA friendly college list is a compilation of over 300 public/private, 2 year/4 year schools across the Southwest region.

WHY DID SA-Z MAKE THIS LIST?

The purpose of this document is to serve as a starting guide to the school search in and outside your state. By scanning through the list you'll be able to see which schools give financial aid and offer you scholarships regardless of status and state of residence.

WHERE DID WE GET THIS INFO FROM?

The information was collected based off financial aid policies stated on school websites, emails to financial aid advisors, and calls to financial aid offices.

WHAT DID WE FIND OUT THAT YOU SHOULD KNOW BEFORE YOU SEARCH?

It is important to note that many of the schools do not have clearly defined policies (as it was common for financial aid advisors to not have answers and ask coworkers for answers). Many may have known policies for undocumented students residing in their state because that is their predominant population, but have no set policy for out-of-state undocumented students. So while financial aid and scholarship eligibility recorded on the college list comes from responses given to me, these responses may change over time (perhaps with the enrollment of more undocumented students in these schools).

HOW DO I USE THIS LIST?

Since this document is not continuously being updated, I recommend students contact the schools they are interested in to confirm what resources those schools have for them. Some may have ways to provide institutional funds to undocumented students with the completion of a paper FAFSA, CSS profile, or an alternative school financial aid form. Financial aid and scholarship eligibility may also vary between first-year students and transfer students and the information given by schools often assumes it is for a first-year student. Therefore, since most policies are not set in stone and there may be differences in policies for different types of students, I suggest for students to use the college list to get a general overview of how much financial and on-campus support schools may have, but to contact them for more details.

Colorado Policy : Undocumented students became eligible for in-state tuition in the state of Colorado through ASSET

ASSET (Advancing Students for a Stronger Economy Tomorrow) Bill (SB-13-033) | Student Eligibility Requirements

- Must have attended a public or private high school in Colorado for at least three years immediately preceding graduation
- Must have been admitted to or already attend a public college or university in Colorado within 12 months of graduating or completing a GED
- Must sign affidavit stating that they have applied for lawful presence or will apply as soon as they are able *Qualifying students are eligible for the college opportunity fund, students may be eligible for institutional or other financial aid. Each college/university in the state of Colorado manages funds differently and has different requirements for ASSET, DACA, or undocumented students.

**Students who qualify for all other requirements but were not admitted to an institution within 12 months after graduating or completing a general equivalency diploma may still be classified as an in-state student for tuition purposes as long as they have been physically present in Colorado on a continuous basis for at least one year.
