STATEMENT FROM THE CHICAGO WORKERS' COLLABORATIVE STAFF IN SUPPORT OF BLACK LIVES MATTER

We of the Chicago Workers Collaborative have been shocked and saddened by the murders of countless Black people who have died at the hand of our injustice system. We see that our struggles for worker justice are inextricably bound to the dehumanizing and brutal system of state oppression that Black people face daily. We stand in solidarity with the activists of the Black Lives Matter movement and allies, who are fighting for a wholesale re-imagining of what public safety should be. We also recommit to doing what we can as an organization to foster unity among workers of all races.

THE CORONAVIRUS TEMP WORKER SURVEY

We are working with Temp Worker Justice on a national survey of temp workers. If your current or most recent job was a "temp" or "contract" job, then this survey is FOR YOU! The goal of this survey is to continue pushing for fair pay, safer working conditions, and respect for workers, especially during the current Coronavirus pandemic. We know if workers have more power, then the public's health will benefit all. If YOU are a temporary worker click HERE to complete the 10 minute survey now!

"FINDING JOBS AROUND CHICAGO WILL BE TOUGH EVEN AS ECONOMY REOPENS, EXPERTS SAY"

Our Executive Director was recently quoted in an article for the Chicago SunTimes. Here's an excerpt from that article: "Tim Bell, ED of CWC, said he's noticed staffing firms putting out lawn signs in manufacturing areas to attract workers. But Bell said some have been shut out of work because of child-care responsibilities with schools shut down because of the pandemic. Click HERE to read more!
