

"At times, our own light goes out and is rekindled by a spark from another person.

Each of us has cause to think with deep gratitude of those who have lighted the flame within us."

-Albert Schweitzer

From the Lawyers and Staff of Livingston, Adler, Pulda, Meiklejohn, & Kelly:

We are filled with gratitude and are humbled to be honored by CCAG! And to stand alongside the inspiring Pastor A.J. Johnson, to whom we extend our congratulations.

In solidarity with CCAG and previous honorees, LAPM&K is proud to be one of many warriors in the ongoing fight for social justice and workplace fairness and we hope we can kindle the flame in others.

We also proudly celebrate our partner & friend, Danny Livingston. He is a passionate activist and a true champion for workers. His commitment to the progressive movement in both his professional & his personal life keeps the LAPM&K spark alive!

Thank you, Danny!!

Thanks for all you do!

Dan represents or works closely with a long list of labor and progressive organizations including – the UAW, SEBAC, the SEIU, UNITE-HERE, the IAM, the CFSA – and many of their locals, CWEALF, the CCAG, Working Families Party, CCNE, DUE Justice, Better Choices, and others. Dan also serves as the Chair of Connecticut Health and Research Trust, parent foundation of the Universal Health Care Foundation of Connecticut, and is a member of the State Governing Board of Common Cause in CT. Much of his practice involves working with groups and coalitions of labor and progressive organizations as they struggle to protect and expand the rights of working families against a resurgent right wing.

Dan is a member of various professional associations, including the Labor and Employment Section of the Connecticut Bar Association, the Lawyer's Coordinating Committee of the AFL-CIO, the Connecticut Employment Lawyers Association, and he has been selected to be a James P. Cooper Fellow. He speaks and writes on employment and labor law topics throughout the country at various professional seminars, as well as labor and progressive seminars, conferences and conventions and is widely known for his leadership and expertise on those matters. Dan has received numerous awards and honors for his legal work and service to the progressive movement and has been recognized by his peers as a “Best Lawyer” and “Super Lawyer,” but is listing it in his bio only because his partners made him do it.
