Thank you for being an Arts Advocate!

The Nebraskans for the Arts (NFTA) has created this Advocacy Toolkit as a resource for those interested in developing the knowledge and skills to be effective advocates with the Nebraska Legislature.

Nebraska has a nonpartisan Unicameral, or single-house legislative body. This presents advocates with a unique opportunity for citizens to interact with a group of 49 State Senators – the smallest legislative body in the United States – as a bill moves from introduction through three rounds of debate before final passage.

Whether you are new to advocacy or have been helping for many years to help promote the arts, and arts policy, this toolkit provides you with the information to communicate with Nebraska legislators in 2021.

Session Two: Advocacy Training
Wednesday, February 17\textsuperscript{th}
11:00 am – 12:00 pm

This portion of the event will begin with a brief advocacy training led by Jo Giles, the Policy and Training Director at Coalition for a Strong Nebraska. Then, attendees will meet in breakout rooms with their “district cohorts” to create a game plan for the meetings with their State Senators. The session will conclude with a Q & A.
Event Agenda

Session Three: Nebraska Arts Council Water Cooler Session
Thursday, February 18th
1:00 pm – 2:00 pm

Each month, the Nebraska Arts Council invites arts leaders from across the state to gather for an informal presentation and conversation, events known as “Water Cooler Sessions.” This month, NAC is partnering with NFTA to focus on how to make virtual events more accessible. Brad Holt from Sorenson Communications will talk about how to work with ASL interpreters in a virtual platform. Donna Faust Amen from Outlook Nebraska will visit about audio description. Linda Hilliar, Program Coordinator at NAC will talk about different grant programs that are available to help with these services.

Register to secure your spot at the Nebraska Arts Council website.

Meetings with State Senators
Thursday, February 18th – Monday, March 8th

This year, Nebraska Arts Advocacy Day attendees will meet with their State Senator at a specified time in the weeks following the event. All meetings will take place virtually and will last approximately 20 minutes. In keeping with previous years, your meeting will take place with others from your district – you’ll have the opportunity to meet each other and plan an agenda for your meeting during Session Two.

Wondering what to discuss? We encourage you to peruse the “2021 Menu of Talking Points for the Arts” and “Additional Resources” sections of this packet.
2021 Menu of Talking Points for the Arts

The following are some talking points we wish advocates to deliver during the 2021 legislative session. Choose 2-3 points relevant to you that you wish to share. Just remember, make your conversation personal and heartfelt. Be genuine in your enthusiasm for the arts by talking about what you know best, and most importantly, say thank you!

The Arts in Nebraska

✓ The U.S. Bureau of Economic Analysis reports that arts and cultural production accounts for $2,943,343,023 and 2.4% of the Nebraska economy, contributing 28,735 jobs (2017).

✓ In 2017, 57% of Nebraskan adults reported attending a live music, theatre, or dance performance.

Nebraska Arts Council

✓ The Nebraska Arts Council grants programs are a catalyst for bringing a diversity of arts programs to children and adults across Nebraska. Grants are matched by other resources, leveraging these investments.

Nebraska Cultural Endowment

✓ The Nebraska Cultural Endowment is the first cultural endowment in the nation to sustain both the arts and humanities; its resources support the programs and grants funded by Humanities Nebraska and the Nebraska Arts Council.

✓ The Nebraska Cultural Endowment is a true private-public partnership; private gifts are matched by a State fund and are used to benefit communities.
2021 Menu of Talking Points for the Arts

LB142: Nebraska Cultural Endowment
✓ LB142 proposes to provide for the transfer of $1,000,000 annually from the General Fund to the Nebraska Cultural Endowment through the year 2030. This would be an annual increase of $500,000 and greatly increase the potential of both the Nebraska Arts Council and Humanities Nebraska to make an impact in the state.

LB264: Cultural Districts
✓ LB264 proposes to add $100,000 annually to the Nebraska Arts Council’s agency budget for the purpose of providing grants to designated Nebraska Cultural Districts.
✓ As a result of your advocacy during the 2020 Legislative Session, Nebraska is now one of 18 states with a statewide cultural district program.
✓ The desired outcomes of cultural district programs are to: attract artists and cultural enterprises, encourage business and job development, establish tourism destinations, preserve historical buildings, enhance property values, and more.

LB325: Art Therapy Practice Act
✓ LB325 amends relevant sections of the Uniform Credentialing Act and Mental Health Practice Act to create a certification in Art Therapy in Nebraska. This certification would be administered by the Mental Health Practice Board.
✓ The ideation for this bill began in 2018, the same year The 407 Credentialing Review Process for Art Therapy began. In 2020, this review ended with final reports in support of the proposal being issues by the Technical Review Committee, Board of Health, and Director. LB325 would establish what was approved during this review.

LB566: Shovel-Ready
✓ LB566 proses to create a grant program, administered by the Department of Economic Development, for cultural organizations that were forced to halt a capital campaign or expansion project due the COVID-19 pandemic.
✓ There are dozens of cultural organizations across the State of Nebraska that would be impacted by this bill, ranging from the Post Playhouse in Crawford to the Isis Theatre in Crete to The UNION for Contemporary Art in Omaha.
COVID-19 and Its Impact on the Arts

✓ According to data from Americans for the Arts, the COVID-19 pandemic has made an over 5 million dollar impact on Nebraska’s cultural economy.

✓ The same survey found that 1 in 10 cultural organizations were not confident their organization would survive the impact of the pandemic and that over 100,000 arts workers had been laid off or furloughed.

✓ In research conducted by Indiana University’s Arts, Entrepreneurship, & Innovation Lab it was found that “the arts offer economic diversification and can rapidly recover from economic downturns.” (National Assembly of Arts Agencies)

The Arts Mean. . .

... Better Skills
✓ Arts spark creativity and innovation. The Conference Board reports that creativity is among the top 5 applied skills sought by business leaders—with 72 percent saying creativity is of high importance when hiring.

✓ Nebraska’s vibrant arts community makes us a strong recruiting draw in the 21st century economy and sets us apart from other states. Nebraska’s arts sector generates jobs, attracts businesses, and cultivates innovation of employees by encouraging and developing creative skills.

... Better Schools
✓ Students with high arts participation and low socioeconomic status have a 4% dropout rate—five times lower than their socioeconomic status peers.

✓ Data from the College Board shows that students who take four years of arts and music classes while in high school average almost 98 points higher on their SAT scores than students who take only one-half year or less.

... Better Communities
✓ The arts are essential to the health and vitality of our communities and our nation. They improve the quality of life in our cities and town. They enhance community development; spur urban renewal; attract new businesses; and draw tourism dollars.

LAWS OF NEBRASKA

Credit/Source: “Nebraska Legislature 101: How a Bill Becomes a Law,” Nebraska Appleseed
The lawmaking process in Nebraska officially begins when a senator introduces a bill into the Legislature, which meets each January. But the process actually begins much earlier, when a senator first begins to formulate ideas for new laws.

Anyone can present an idea for a new law: a concerned citizen, special interest groups, state agencies, the governor... But, before the Legislature can formally consider the idea, it must be introduced as a bill by a senator or committee.

Committees debate and propose amendments to bills, and the full Legislature has an opportunity to debate each bill at least two times before its final passage. Senators may propose amendments to alter a bill at each stage of debate.

Read through the steps below to learn how a bill becomes a Nebraska state law.

Idea
First, a senator and his or her staff research a problem and study possible legislative remedies. A senator may introduce a bill to create a new law, repeal an existing law or change a law.

The Legislature has a research division that helps senators with their research projects. Much of their research is done during the period between sessions called the interim. During this time, legislative committees study a variety of issues that have been outlined in interim study resolutions passed by the Legislature.

A senator brings his or her idea for a new law to a bill drafter, who works with the senator to transform the idea into the proper legal form for a legislative bill. Unlike some states, bills introduced in Nebraska may contain only one subject.

Introduction
Most bills are introduced during the first 10 days of the legislative session which begins each January. In order to introduce a bill, a senator files it with the Clerk of the Legislature. The clerk reads the title of the bill into the record, assigns it a number and prints copies of it for public and legislative use.
Introduction (continued)
The Legislative Fiscal Office prepares budget statements that estimate the anticipated change in state, county, or municipal expenses or revenue under the provisions of each bill. This statement is called a fiscal note. The fiscal note contains three estimates. One estimate is calculated by the fiscal office staff; another is prepared by the governor's budget office; and a third is prepared by the affected state agency. In addition, the fiscal office prepares appropriations bills ("A" bills), which accompany bills that have a fiscal impact.

Committee
A nine-member Reference Committee then determines which bills will go to each one of the 14 standing committees. With the exception of a few technical bills, most bills introduced into the Legislature must receive a public hearing by a committee. At hearings, citizens have a chance to express their opinions to committee members. Testimony is recorded and transcribed to become a part of the official committee record.

After the hearing, committees may:
• vote to send the bill to general file with or without amendments,
• indefinitely postpone the bill, or
• take no action on it.

General File
General File is the first time the full Legislature has the opportunity to debate and vote on bills. At this stage, senators consider amendments, which may be proposed by committees and by individual senators. Many people consider General File to be the most crucial stage of the legislative process because it is where most compromises are reached. It takes a majority vote of the Legislature (25 votes) to adopt amendments or move a bill from General File to the next stage of consideration.

Enrollment & Review
Commonly referred to as "E & R," enrollment and review is a process by which previously adopted amendments are incorporated into a bill, and the bill is checked for technical and grammatical accuracy.
Select File
Select File is the second debating and voting stage. This step allows another opportunity for amendment, compromise and reflection. Bills on Select File may be indefinitely postponed or advanced to the next stage. After Select File, bills are sent to E & R again to be rechecked. Bills then are reprinted for Final Reading.

Final Reading
Before final passage, all bills are constitutionally required to be read aloud in their entirety by the Clerk of the Legislature, unless three-fifths (30 members) of the Legislature votes to waive the requirement. A bill may not be amended or debated on Final Reading, but may be returned to Select File for a specific amendment. Bills may not be voted on for final passage until at least five legislative days after the bill is introduced, and one legislative day after it is placed on Final Reading.

A proposed constitutional amendment requires a three-fifths vote of the elected members (30) to place it on the general election ballot and a four-fifths vote (40) to place it on a primary or special election ballot. All other bills without an emergency clause require a simple majority vote before going to the governor. A bill with an emergency clause requires a vote of two-thirds (33 members) of the Legislature.

Governor
After the Legislature passes a bill on Final Reading, it goes to the governor for consideration. The governor has five days, excluding Sundays, to decide what to do with a bill. If the governor signs a bill or declines to act on it, the bill becomes a state law. The governor may veto a bill, and he or she has the authority to strike specific budget appropriations (line-item veto). The Legislature may override any gubernatorial veto, although it takes a vote of 30 senators to do so.

Laws of Nebraska
Most bills passed and approved by the governor become law three calendar months after the Legislature adjourns. However, bills may take effect before that date if they contain an emergency clause or a specified operative date.
How to Make Your Voice Heard

The following is a list of ways you can impact the law-making process in Nebraska. A few of these are new as of 2021 – created to ensure Nebraskans can safely engage with the Nebraska Legislature during the COVID-19 pandemic – so be sure to review, even if you’ve been an active advocate in previous years.

1. Write a letter to or schedule a meeting with your State Senator. Unsure as to who your State Senator is? Use the Find My Senator feature on the Nebraska Legislature website.

2. If your representative is unavailable, meet with a State Senator’s Legislative Aide. Meeting with a staff member can be just as influential, since staff carefully brief the Senator on meetings and issues.

3. Testify in support, against, or in a neutral capacity on a bill. Every bill is assigned a public hearing date to be reviewed by one of the Legislature’s 14 standing committees. Use the Nebraska Bill Tracker to stay up-to-date on the current status, including notice of a public hearing date, of any bills that you believe would impact you.

4. Unable to attend or anxious about attending a public hearing in person? You can submit written testimony or a position letter. Written testimony must be submitted in-person at the State Capitol between 8:30 – 9:30 am the day of a hearing. Position letters must be submitted by noon the business day prior to the hearing to the committee’s email address. You can learn more about options 3 and 4 here.

5. Go to the Nebraska Legislature website and submit comments online. These comments are made available to legislators and their staff.
