Iowa Senate Majority Fund
Job Description: Finance Director

Position Overview
Iowa Senate Democrats are hiring a Finance Director to work for our campaign committee, the Iowa Senate Majority Fund (SMF). This is a senior staff position reporting directly to the Senate Majority Fund Executive Director and newly elected Iowa Senate Democratic Leader Zach Wahls. Leader Wahls is excited to invigorate, modernize, and drive change across Iowa, beginning with his own caucus and political operations. The Finance Director will work with all members of the Democratic Caucus, Iowa Senate candidates, and staff. This position will require extensive hours and statewide travel. The salary range for this position is $50k – $65k with core benefits including healthcare with vision and dental, a 401(k) match, paid vacation and paid sick leave. Additional incentives and benefits may be available. This position can begin remotely but will be expected to relocate to Des Moines, Iowa.

Qualifications
The SMF Finance Director must be able to quickly win the respect of other Senior Staff, the members of the caucus, and key partners. Given Iowa Senate Democrats are currently in an 18-32 minority, the SMF Finance Director must understand how to grow the finance plan in a strategic way and demonstrate the ability to think outside the box, relentlessly drive change, and never tire of asking, “What about this idea?”

The Finance Director must possess:
- Strong organizational skills — attention to detail and ability to successfully multitask
- A self-starter mindset; willingness to take initiative and tackle difficult challenges head on
- Strong verbal and interpersonal communication skills
- The ability to motivate members of the caucus, allies, and candidates
- The ability to stay calm in high-pressure and fast-paced moments of turmoil

The SMF Finance Director must have at least two campaign cycles or three years of finance experience, preferably in political fundraising. Caucus finance experience and/or campaign experience in rural or red states is strongly preferred. Qualified applicants must have success in managing a principal as well as multiple direct reports, creating and executing a finance plan, proficiency in maintaining NGP VAN or a similar donor database, and familiarity with the latest fundraising best practices.

Job Responsibilities
