

Campaign Manager – NC State Senate

The North Carolina Senate Democratic Caucus is seeking highly motivated candidates for the position of campaign manager in areas that we anticipate will be highly competitive in the 2022 election cycle. The ideal candidate will have experience in volunteer recruitment, organizing, field, finance and campaign management. The DCampaign Manager will work closely with central caucus staff, including the Executive Director and Deputy Executive Director, to build relationships within the district, identify opportunities to support and add capacity to the efforts of local groups already on the ground, and help organize the district for the purposes of supporting and electing Democratic State Senate candidates in 2022.

Responsibilities

- Working closely in tandem with the Senate caucus and ensuring that the candidate is staying on program
- Identify and build relationships with gatekeepers/influencers in district
- Identify new opportunities to work with different communities in the district to prepare for 2022
- Develop a GOTV strategy and streamline with existing groups on the ground to ensure all areas of GOTV are covered and avoid duplication of efforts
- Immersion in local county party through attendance at meetings and building relationships with party officers and members
- Analyze district data and develop precinct prioritization plan
- Assist in candidate recruitment in district where applicable
- Stay abreast of local issues in the district and report to caucus staff on those issues
- Develop and execute a finance plan and staff candidate call time
- Travel within North Carolina will be required, and candidate must have reliable personal transportation
- Candidate will be required to work campaign hours, including nights and weekends

Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities

- Experience with VAN/VoteBuilder
- Extensive experience with NGP
- Experience recruiting and training volunteers
- Ability to coordinate with multiple groups to achieve a common goal
- Ability to work well with a range of different people and personalities
- Ability to quickly learn the district down to the precinct level
- Knowledge and understanding of the differences in urban and suburban portions of the district
- Highly organized, with ability to manage time-sensitive projects
- Specific experience working in diverse communities

This is a temporary full-time, salary exempt position lasting through Election Day 2022, starting as soon as possible. The position will require relocation within North Carolina. To apply please email a resume with 2-3 professional references to the NC Senate Democratic Caucus at Senatecaucus@ncdp.org with the subject line "Campaign Manager Position".
