Position Available

Connecticut Citizen Action Group (CCAG) is a statewide membership organization dedicated to working with people to bring about social, economic and environmental justice. CCAG has been fighting for economic and social justice for 50 years. By utilizing grassroots power, CCAG has created change on the issues our members care about including quality, affordable health care, climate justice, fighting for a robust, transparent democracy and educational equity. It is our 10,000 members statewide who give us the clout we need to win! Major victories include the strongest election public financing legislation in the country, restoring Medicaid coverage for thousands of working families, and holding corporations and elected officials accountable to a just society.
