Broadland District Council Election, 4th May 2023

VOTE TO RE-ELECT TWO HARD WORKING GREEN COUNCILLORS

ELEANOR LAMING & JAN DAVIS

WE LISTEN, WE ACT

Eleanor and Jan care about their area

In September 2021 residents of Brundall Ward elected Eleanor and Jan in a by-election with a pledge to listen, work hard, and act to represent your views and concerns. It has been a privilege to meet so many of you at local events, parish council meetings, and whilst we have been out and about following up on issues you have raised. There is another election on the 4th May. We care about our local area and we look forward to continuing to represent you on Broadland District Council.

FURTHER HOUSING DEVELOPMENTS HALTED

In March 2022 Natural England ordered a halt to further developments involving overnight accommodation (i.e. housing). No further housing can be built until measures are put in place to address the issue of nutrient overload in the water courses of the Broads Special Area of Conservation. Developments that had already received approval before the halt was imposed are still going ahead. But any planning applications for new housing will have to include measures to limit additional nutrients entering water courses. There are no easy solutions. The overload of nutrients in our local rivers is a clear demonstration of the limits to growth. We will continue to closely monitor the situation to ensure any proposed solutions are practical and actually work.

Housing is halted by pollution fears

Planning system needs an overhaul

Local people make their views known but lack power to change the system. Communities across the land are concerned about similar issues, namely loss of green space and biodiversity. | reduction in numbers of affordable houses at late stages of the planning process. These are the developments that suit the house builders, not those who live in the area, and certainly not the wildlife whose habitats are lost.

Why is there an election?

District Council Elections in Broadland are held every four years. In Brundall Ward there are two council seats and so you will have two votes each. We ask you to vote again for your current active councillors, Jan and Eleanor. We live locally, know the area, and since our election in 2021 we have gained valuable experience of representing your views. Who to vote for is an important decision and it will be close as the chart from the last election shows.
