BOLEYN BY-ELECTION

GREENS WON 2 COUNCILLORS LAST YEAR IN NEWHAM - ELECT A THIRD IN BOLEYN VOTE JOE HUDSON-SMALL

ELECT NEWHAM'S THIRD GREEN COUNCILLOR STANDING UP AGAINST CUTS

We surveyed residents like you to understand local issues and took action. Your top issues included cost of living, affordable housing, littering, fly-tipping and recycling, and crime and anti-social behaviour.

In response, Joe and Newham's Green councillors have:

- Organised local litter picks and reported fly tipping and potholes
- Supported the campaign to save Queen's Market
- Installed dog poop bag dispensers
- Voted against Labour's £20 million of cuts and council tax hikes
- Delivered a year-long energy bill freeze for thousands of residents
- Organised a community safety meeting attended by hundreds of residents
- Stopped Labour demands to make it harder to obtain housing support
- Backed striking workers including healthcare workers and our bin workers
- Supported the London Renter's Union's Safe Homes Now campaign
- Campaigned to expand recycling including food waste collection

Green Councillors work incredibly hard all year round. With Joe as an elected Green councillor, Greens could do so much more for Boleyn.

IT'S JOE FROM THE GREENS OR ANOTHER LABOUR COUNCILLOR HERE

VOTES FOR LIB-DEMS OR CONSERVATIVES WILL NOT AFFECT THE OUTCOME OF THIS ELECTION

NEWHAM COUNCIL NEEDS ACCOUNTABILITY

YOUR CHOICE AT THE COUNCIL ELECTION:

ANOTHER LABOUR COUNCILLOR
CHOSEN BY KEIR STARMER

TOLD HOW TO VOTE & WHAT TO SAY BY THEIR PARTY

OR

JOE HUDSON-SMALL

FREE TO SPEAK UP FOR BOLEYN

97% of councillors elected last year were Labour. An effective opposition ensures you get value for money from your council.

Electing another Labour councillor here won't change anything, but putting Joe on the council will.

If we vote the same way, then our new council will be run the same way, by the same people.

LAST YEAR NEWHAM ELECTED 64 LABOUR AND 2 GREEN COUNCILLORS
GREENS ARE ALREADY NEWHAM'S SECOND PARTY

64 LABOUR

TWO GREEN

BOLEYN HAS HAD 11 COUNCILLORS IN 10 YEARS

This is the 3rd by-election in a row for Boleyn, and Labour's candidate this time has been picked by Keir Starmer, with local members shut out.

Residents have been telling us that Labour have been taking Boleyn for granted.

Many people are telling us although they have historically voted Labour, they are frustrated with the current council and want more hard working councillors.

Whatever happens at this by-election, Labour will still run the council, but electing Joe will ensure they are held to account.

Unlike Labour councillors, Joe isn't told how to vote and what to say – he is free to stand up for you.

Greens can truly speak for what matters to local people in our area.

JOE HUDSON-SMALL

ELECT JOE HUDSON-SMALL TO JOIN OUR TWO ELECTED GREEN COUNCILLORS

THIS ELECTION IS TO ELECT JUST ONE OF YOUR THREE COUNCILLORS

Whatever happens at this election, you'll still have at least two Labour councillors. Labour will still run the council.

The third seat in this council by-election is between Joe Hudson-Small and another Labour councillor.
