Note: For your application to be considered, you are required to use the cover sheet and budget page that is included as part of this application. Submit to CHEJ by Friday, February 2nd, 2024, at 12:00 Midnight EST to grants@chej.org.

Please answer the following questions and submit a completed application of no more than three (3) pages, plus the cover sheet and budget page (a total of five [5] pages).

Please do not use a 10-point font; 12-point is preferred.

1) What issues are your group working on? How long has your group been working on these issues?

2) What are your group's goals? Has your group had any achievements? If so, briefly describe.

3) Is your group led by people from an impacted community? How many members/people are involved in your group's activities?

4) Please describe your group's proposed project. The project should build leadership and/or build your group's capacity by expanding community participation or strengthening your group. Also, include a short summary of your next steps after project completion. Note: A small number of general support grants can be awarded.

5) Is the issue your group is working on at a critical juncture? Why would it be timely and helpful if your group received the funding for the proposed project?

Fiscal Sponsor Information:

Should your group not be incorporated and does not have a bank account, you will need to identify a group that can accept the funds for your group, such as a church or other non-profit that will serve as a "fiscal sponsor" to accept the funds. Please provide your group's identified fiscal sponsor's name and contact information, if it is available at the time of this application.
